A CLEVER CAPTURE.

Pair of Burglars Going to Their Doom. About a week ago two purgiars, named John Far and Thomas Johnson, took up their residence the Twenty-second ward, and laid plans roobing of a flour and feed the corner of Forty-sixth street Eighth svenue, owned by Smith & Silis. At ariy hour yesterday morning they determined effecting the robbery. Johnson forced his into the building white Farrell rea effecting the robbery. Johnson forced his ay into the building while Farrell realized outside to watch for the police. He as not, however, as wide awake as he ignt have been, for Roundsman Larkin, of the renty-second precinct, who had been watching to pair, suddenly pounced upon Farrell and rested him. He marched him immestely to the station house, and while a his way thither met Officer Holmes, nom he sent back to prevent the escape of John. The latter discovered Holmes watching him, at attempted to escape; but a shot brought aim to, and he surrendered quietly. On searching the building le most perfect set of burgiar's tools that has ever sen seen was found. The prisoners were yester-ay arraigned at the Yorkville Police Court, and ommitted without ball to answer. Their pictures ere already in the Rogue's Gallery.
